Making Our Remembrance Memorable

This new book directs your thoughts to the Lord's Supper in a fresh and inspiring way.

CASTLE ROCK, COLORADO, May 1, 2018 – It's Suppertime is a collection of devotions that prepare your heart for the Lord's Supper. They are inspired by news stories, historical events, every day experiences and familiar songs. Each devotion will direct your attention, renew your appreciation and inspire your adoration for Jesus and his redemptive sacrifice.

"I consider Communion to be the most significant part of our worship. It is the only thing we do that was commanded by Jesus. I'm thankful for the reminder of what the Lord did for us," said author James Gresham. (CrossLink Publishing, 2018, $11.95, available at <http://jamesagresham.com>.)

The devotions were developed for use in worship services for preparation for the Lord's Supper. This book provides a ready resource for someone to use for preparing remarks to share. The devotions can be used as written and most will fit perfectly within your own worship service. Or they can be used as a starting point for someone to add additional thoughts. The book is also an excellent resource for personal devotions as a reminder of Christ's love expressed at Calvary or for personal worship for someone who is unable to participate in worship with the church.

This new book directs your thoughts to the Lord's Supper in a fresh and inspiring way.
